Mansfield, PA. — The Mansfield Destroyers are proud to announce the signing of three Division I Siena players to join returner John Wheeler for the upcoming 2020 season.

Jack Moynihan - is from Taunton, MA, is a 6'0, 205-pound freshmen right-handed pitcher. Jack had an outstanding high school career. In 2019 he led his team to a State Championship, going 6-0 on the mound. As a junior, he was 4-1 with a 1.43 Era. Last Summer, Jack pitched in the Futures Collegiate League and threw an impressive no-hitter vs. Bristol.

"Jack will be a huge addition to our pitching staff." -Coach Hill.

Matt Livingston - from Whitinsville, MA, is a 6'3, 265-pound freshman left-handed hitting first basemen. Matt hit over .400 in both his junior and senior years in high school. Last summer, he helped lead his American Legion team to the World Series. Livingston is off to a great freshmen season currently hitting over .400 for the Saints.

"Matt is projected to hit in the middle of our lineup and see time at first and in the DH role." -Coach Hill

Eric Havner- from Hopewell Junction, NY, is a 5'9 175-pound sophomore infielder. Eric brings experience and versatility to the Destroyers. He can play second, short, and third and played in the Hudson Valley Collegiate league last summer. Havner was All-League and All-County his senior year.

"Eric is an extremely hard worker, and we are looking forward to having him with us this summer. We greatly appreciate Coach Rossi for sending us talented ballplayers and great kids every summer," - Coach Hill
